- Mental Accounting
- Behavioral pricing phenomena (e.g., left-digit-effect, price thresholds, price-quality inferences,...)
- Price experiments

Group tasks:

- Presentation: Behavioral pricing paper
- Designing, running, and analyzing a behavioral pricing experiment

Setting prices

How should we set prices for our products?

Key elements:

- Pricing Basics
- Price setting of list prices (product pricing)
- Price setting of net prices (customer pricing)
- Price execution and monitoring

Group task:

- Case study preparation and presentation

Negotiating prices

How can we achieve a good price in a negotiation with a customer?

Key elements:

- Negotiation theory
- Best practices in price negotiations

Group task:

- Preparing and conducting a simulated price negotiation

Concept

- Time and Place
 - Session blocks combining lecture, working session, presentation sessions, and simulated negotiation
 - First session: November 10th, 2023; Building 10.11/R213
 - Final session: January 12th, 2024; Building 20.21/R115 and Office Rooms
- “Learning by doing”
 - Instead of an exam students apply the methods taught in class to real-world business and research cases
 - Group work
- Implementation:
 - Lecture slides will be provided on ILIAS by chapter
 - Class is managed through ILIAS, forum actively moderated
- Grade:
 - Up to 100 points can be achieved during the class
 - 40 points Workshop 1 Behavioral Pricing: Experimental study presentation (10 min + 5 min Q&A; groups of ~4)
 - 35 points Workshop 2 Pricing Excellence: Case study presentation (20 min + 10 min Q&A; groups of ~4)
 - 25 points Workshop 3 Price Negotiation: Simulated price negotiation (groups of ~2)
 - Final grade determined based on sum of points from the three assignments

- Maximum number of participants: 24
- Application procedure:
 - Please use the Wiwi-Portal to apply for „Pricing (WS23/24)“ (<https://portal.wiwi.kit.edu/ys/7549> or via QR Code*)
 - Please upload your CV as well as your overview of grades (Bachelor & Master)
 - Please further state how many ECTS you have already achieved in Marketing excluding „BWL PM“/“Management and Marketing“
 - Announcement of answers: Monday, November 06
 - Please confirm your attendance until: Wednesday, November 08, 11:59 pm
 - In case of any questions please contact: robin.pade@kit.edu
- Assignments into groups for individual applications will be based on randomized process

Organizational Guidelines

- Latecomers:
 - If you register after 05 November 2023 you need to complete the first workshop alone
 - You will be assigned into a group for the second workshop onwards
 - The deadline for the first workshop does not change
- Illnesses etc.:
 - If you miss out on up to one workshop assignment due to illness, you can make up the missing points through an individual case study assignment plus writing an essay in January 2024
 - If you miss more than one assignment due to illness, you need to retake the class next year or forego the points from the assignments you missed
- Participation requirements:
 - Pricing cannot be taken if "Pricing Excellence [T-WIWI-111246]" or "Price Negotiations and Sales Presentations [T-WIWI-102891]" have already been completed, because both classes have become part of Pricing
 - No exceptions can be made
